Presentation: Carol Lucio with SADD – Students Against Destructive Decisions Funded by the KY Office of Highway Safety and is a free resource for all schools. SADD was founded in 1981 by a group of students who had lost peers to drinking and driving. In 1997 the mission expanded to Destructive Decisions. They are a youth-led prevention program and address substance use prevention, positive mental health, leadership, personal health, kindness, and mobility safety.

Upcoming Events:

- Pink Out NKU Jan 25, 12-4pm

Recent Events:

- Mentoring Plus Grand Opening event on Nov 22.

New Business:

- Live Well Grant awarded and will support story walks. Planning for this will begin soon.

Old Business:

- Bathroom stalls project: Nicole and Sarah B. will reach out to the schools to see who is interested in receiving the plastic holders and newsletters.
- Nicole and Sarah B. are working with Sarah S. and Bellevue HS Smile Club on a video campaign to promote a substance-free lifestyle. They will be meeting with students soon and are hoping to be able to share the videos across the county at different venues/events.
- Laptop/Earbuds campaign: After discussion from schools, it seems that all would use the same type of earbuds with their computers. Red Hot Promotions is putting together sample layouts for the items. Nicole will share with the school staff when that is complete.
- Nicole and Sarah B. continue to work on grants, just trying to be prepared for when the applications become available. Christi J. recommended they reach out to Vicky Dansberry for grant writing help, it would be at no cost, as she has had success in securing similar grants.

Committees:

Did not meet since this was a virtual meeting.

Announcements:

- January is Seatbelt Safety Month and Carol would be happy to partner with anyone in a campaign.
- NKCES/NKISP is holding a Catch My Break Implementation training on Jan 28. Reach out to Christi to get information on registration.
- March 22, 2025, Fighting for Freedom: A Community Addressing Human Trafficking event will be taking place, registration information to be available soon.
